DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4, 18 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,041,411 to Wyatt.

As per claims 1, 4, 18 and 21, Wyatt discloses the limitations of these claims (col. 11, lines 16-49).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6, 7 and 23 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wyatt as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of the examiner taking official notice.

As per claims 6, 7 and 23, Wyatt does not specifically disclose these limitations.

However, the examiner takes official notice that these features are well known in prior art methods. Specifically, authentication often relies on a person presenting their secret password or is in possession of a token, typically a smart card.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-17, 24-29 allowed.

Claims 2, 3, 5, 19, 20, 22, objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

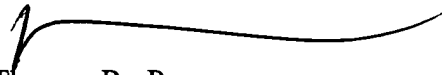

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
